INTRODUCTION

The listing of state officials in Part I of this edition of the Roster of State and Local Officials differs from the plan used in previous editions. We have listed first the elective officers and then statutory executive or administrative departments in alphabetical order. An attempt has been made to eliminate duplication in the listings of both officials and departments. This section includes a list of the trustees and chief executive or administrative officers of state institutions, as carried in former editions.

The federal, county, city and township listings, comprising the remainder of the Roster follow along the general plan used previously.

As this department must depend largely on the information obtained from local officials there is the possibility of some errors in names and addresses. We have, however, checked these lists with all available reliable sources and feel confident that the listings as printed can be relied upon for all practical purposes. This office will appreciate any changes or needed corrections which may be called to its attention.

Free copies of the Roster may be obtained by addressing the State Board of Accounts, State House, Indianapolis 4.

* Terms of elective officers expire January 1, 1948.

* The mayor acts as city judge in city courts having no elective judge.

* Woodburn, Post Office.

* County seat.

 See Marion Municipal Court, p. 31.

† Numbers to immediate right of cities indicate classification; unnumbered cities are in fifth class.

Classification of Cities

First Class—Population, 250,000 or over.

Second Class—Population, 35,000 or over and less than 250,000.

Third Class—Population, 20,000 or over and less than 35,000.

Fourth Class—Population, 10,000 or over and less than 20,000.

Fifth Class—Population, 2,000 or over and less than 10,000.

The Acts of 1935 (Ch. 240) provide that any civil town may become a fifth class city upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the voters in an election (either special or in conjunction with the regular general election) on the question.
